

Become a member of Biovia?

What's in it for me?

Well, quite a lot, really. Here are some highlights, but if you want to know the whole story, check our membership brochure.

Membership at Biovia is not just a label. It's access to expertise, visibility, connections, support and funding opportunities that help your organization move faster, smarter and further in life sciences and healthtech.

Major savings on our flagship events

Members benefit from substantial discounts on all Biovia flagship events.
*Total combined savings for members: €1,080 (per person)

You receive reduced rates for:

- Health on Stage
- Knowledge for Growth
- Science for Health
- HealthTech Investor Summit

And that's just the entry fees—which alone can make up for the cost of membership. But members also get discounts on sponsorships and pitching packages.

Learn directly from your peers

Don't reinvent the wheel. Instead gain free access to our full portfolio of coaching, info sessions and educational workshops—most of them for members only.
*Total combined value: €3,000+ (per person)

Our activities cover topics like:

- International market access
- Reimbursement and regulatory challenges
- Raising venture capital
- Accessing and securing R&D funding

You learn from peers, experts and industry leaders — without the price tag.

Support for VLAIO funding

Biovia offers full, hands-on support to understand, access and manage the VLAIO conditions linked to our €8 million earmarked, non-dilutive funding.

Members are not required to pay the success fee for approved projects.

*Total savings for members: €3,500

Project services include:

- Eligibility checks
- Project framing
- Writing workshop
- Administrative support

To date, Biovia has supported 70 organizations with a total of €27,643,000 in VLAIO funding.

Communicate and stand out

Our members-only portal gets you on our website and in our weekly newsletter. Members also get half-price content on our life sciences media outlet BioVox.

- Profile your company on our website
- Post your press releases
- Post your events
- Post your job vacancies
- 50% discount on BioVox (Up to €1,500 savings)*

This visibility reaches more than 10,000 readers in the Flemish ecosystem and beyond, including researchers, companies, investors and industry leaders.

And that's only the beginning.

In 2026, Biovia will introduce:

- Biovia/VLAIO strategic innovation roadmaps
- High-impact think-tanks (Clinical trials & Value-based healthcare)
- New opportunities for funding, collaboration and project development
- C-level expert roundtables
